Welcome to the Department of History at Lund University!

Congratulations on your admission – we are delighted that you have been accepted to one of our courses! We hope you will enjoy your time with us.

To secure your place, there are a few important things you need to do:

Register on time

You must register online in the Student Portal Ladok no later than the date stated in your admission letter.

When to register: see Introduction meetings autumn 2026:

<https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/interested-in-studying-history/application-and-admission/introduction-meetings-autumn-2026/>

If you are unable to register online, you must contact us before the registration deadline.

E-mail the administrator: hist@hist.lu

If you do not register in time, your place may be offered to another student.

Mandatory introduction meeting

You are required to attend the introduction meeting. Time and location are stated in your admission letter, see Introduction meetings autumn 2026:

<https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/interested-in-studying-history/application-and-admission/introduction-meetings-autumn-2026/>

If you cannot attend, you must notify us in advance. E-mail the administrator: hist@hist.lu

If you are absent without notifying us, your place may be given to another student.

Find your course information

You'll find all essential course information on the course webpage, see Courses by semester:

<https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/courses-by-semester/historia/HT2026/>

There you'll find a:

- schedule
- reading list
- course syllabus
- link to library resources
- direct link to the course at the learning platform Canvas

Instructions on how to activate your student account, how to register online and much more information about your studies at LUX and SOL can be found on the HT faculties' website for newly admitted students: <https://www.ht.lu.se/en/education/admission/>

We look forward to meeting you and wish you an inspiring and rewarding autumn semester 2026!
